

AMINADABU

Aminadabu's music expresses the world of Pureland (paradise in Buddhism) using instruments such as a recorder, koto (Japanese harp), and electric and acoustic guitars.

The leader of Aminadabu, Ryokyu, has released six CDs through major Japanese record companies and his music is played on radio stations and used in TV documentaries and shows.

Mayu;
Koto
(Japanese
Sitar),
Synthesizer,
Bass

Tama;
Piano

Joma;
Percussion

Yuki;
Synthesizer Cello,
Voice

