Ballet Studio KK International

I am Kiyoko Kimura and born in Tokyo, Japan. After I performed as a dancer in Frankfurt Ballet, I joined Stuttgart Ballet, where later danced as a soloist and also played various leading roles in the Leipzig Ballet as a principal.

I was awarded with the Professional Prize at the Prix de Lausanne in 1982. Also I danced a principal role at the opening ceremony of the Nagano Olympic.

Most recently, I organize the Ballet Studio KK International as the representative and also serve as a professor of ballet in Senzoku Gakuen College of Music in Tokyo.
