

Born in Akita city, in 1946.

Learned fine art, graphic design, craft design etc in university .

I have begun my career as an interpreter and translator in the middle of 1984.

I translate Italian to Japanese, English to Japanese Vice versa.

Till now I have translated many articles, essays and papers of various fields.

Published several Picture books for children, Fashion history books in collaboration with other authors.

2012, opened a gallery named “Cache-cache d’Art” as a open art space for Young artists to exhibit their works and voice performance.

Now, under the “Projet : la voix du poètes” which is produced by Taiwan Tendo, we have poetry reading performance two or three times a month regularly.
