Profile

Yuki Matsuo Born in Kanagawa Prefecture in 1991

I spends three years in junior high and high school in Shanghai, China.

2014 Graduated from Nihon University College of Art, Department of Drama

2018 Graduated from Yokohama National University Institute of Innovation

In 2014, I launched "Haruka Toyama" and directed all the performances. Raise the Japanese sentimental and trace the feelings associated with "farewell" with images and short scenes. In addition, it is characterized by absurd physical load and restraint. Good at nonsense comedy. Representative works include the 2019 TPAM fringe participation work "Salome" and the 2019 Magcal Theater participation work "Frankenstein". In addition, he will actively engage in international exchanges, and in 2018, he will hold a photo exhibition "No Words" in collaboration with Chinese photographer Liang Chen, and will direct the venue. In 2020, special sponsorship: "Romeo and Juliet" will be performed in collaboration with Lithuanian artist TADAOCERN at the Embassy of the Republic of Lithuania in Japan.

I am also active as an actor and appeared in "1969 A Space Odyssey Oddity" in Avignon and Tunisia in 2015. Appeared at the closing ceremony of the Tokyo Paralympic Games 2020.
