

I graduated from the University of Bordeaux, France, at the University "Michel de Montaigne" with a degree in "Information and Communication in Tourism".

I has been involved in international activities as well as the promotion of Bulgarian culture in Japan for 20 years .

I published a Bulgarian cookbook in Japanese - "A little treasure of Bulgarian cuisine". It was a book that liked very much to the Japanese audience.

I participated in the Bulgarian pavilion with official translations during the international exhibition in Nagoya and I am a member of the international Japanese organisation ICA in Osaka for 20 years too, devoting all these years for promotion Bulgaria in Japan.

Even, I am a teacher of French and English for 7 years in the language academy .

Many diplomatics people have been invited to represent their countries.

I always have been fascinated about kimono, for this reason, I had the idea to make a exposition 2 years ago finally this year the idea was relized

I had been is a kimono model at famous events in Osaka for a long time .

Soon It will be published A book on the Japanese market where 25 countries have participated , including Bulgaria, - where My participation has been proposed and supported by the Bulgarian Embassy in Japan, Tokyo.

For several years, I have been designing and making unique luxury clothing from orinigal kimonos.