

I was born and live in Osaka, in the Senmba district. I was inspired by my mother, who was a designer of kimonos and also European clothing. I was always surrounded by beauty. Thus naturally came my desire to study the art of the tea ceremony and ikebana. It brought a lot of beauty and meaning to my life. I am happy to present these arts in Japan and around the world.