

I was born and live in Osaka. I work for the international organization ICA as an editor. I have been doing calligraphy for 25 years. I believe that calligraphy is an art that seeks the balance and harmony between black and white and is a way of self-expression. It is a pleasure and an honor for me to present this artistic writing in Japan and around the world!