

Kensei Watanabe

Pianist

(5-38-14 Sakuradai Nerima-ku Tokyo 176-0002, Japan)

Phone: +81 (0)80 2487 0684

kenseiwatanabe.zongorista@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Not only to live as a pianist, who can play with a meaningful music, and can teach well, but also to become a bridge between Japan and Hungary, apply my extensive experience in my studies in Hungary. .

SUMMARY

- Ability to achieve goals pianist
- Connecting Japan and and Hungary, as a classical pianist.

EDUCATION

Ueno Gakuen University, Tokyo 2012.4-2016.3
Bachelor of Music

Liszt Ferenc Academy of Music, Budapest 2016.9-2019.6
Non Degree Studies

MA degree 2019.9-2021.6

PROFILE

In line with the concept "Old is New", Kensei Watanabe shares classical music with the 1912 Bösendorfer piano he brought from Budapest. He has wide experience performing with singers and choirs. He completed his bachelor degree at Ueno Gakuen University Soloist Course, Tokyo, studying under Takahiro Hoshino and Kentaro Kawada. He completed his master degree at the Liszt Academy of Music, Budapest as a holder of a Stipendium Hungaricum scholarship, studying under prof. György Nádor and Dr. Dávid Báll.

LANGUAGE

Japanese, English, Hungarian

CERTIFICATES

Osaka international music competition: Finalist (2015, Japan)

REFERENCE

Available upon request