

Portfolio Biography : Yasuhiro Mitarai

Profession:

Graduate student at Waseda University; Graduate School of Letters, Arts and Sciences in Department of Japanese Language and Literature.

As a researcher:

- Member of Waka Literature Society, Public Relations Committee
- Editorial board member of Chikuma Shobo's Japanese language textbooks for high school students.
- Editorial board member of the Heian-Cho literary course, providing tanka poem series to NHK tanka program, "I like Bungo!".
- Symposium commemorating the publication of "Beginner's Classics: A Collection of Paintings" by Yuko Kawamura, and many other articles.

As a poet and performer:

- Serializing in NHK Tanka program, "I like Bungo!".
- Review of "Kokoro no Hana" (July 2020 - June 2021)
- Provided advice, guidance and information to "Voiceactor, Yuki Kaji, invites you to the beautiful Uji with his voice!", programed by Kyoto Prefecture Uji City Tourism Promotion Division
- Poet of "Kyokusui-no-En", performing at Jonan-Gu
- Poet of "Kikkouden", performing at The Reizei Family
- In the program, "Understanding Waka in Heian era leads you to the field of Japanese education", performed moderating, planning, operating, supporting and generating report.
- Lecturer of "How to Read Waka Poems - For Reading The Tale of Genji".
- Advised, coached and supervised the waka reading for "Ohara, Kyoto - Why Ohara became a healing village?", programed by NHK.
- Performed in "Genderless Talk Session" (with Ayako Noguchi).
- Performed in "Tanka and TANKA 2020" at Japan-Australia "Tanka and Tanka" Festival.
- Performed in "Kyokusui no En" at Kitano-Tenmangu.
- Performed in "Waka Live" (with Ayako Noguchi) at Taiwan Poetry Festival.