

The Japanese Pianist Miki Ambo was born in 1989 in Tokyo.

Miki graduated Kunitachi Junior High School of Music and Kunitachi High School of Music in Tokyo.

She graduated the Norwegian Academy of Music (Norges Musikkhøgskole) in Oslo, she had been studying Classical Piano Performance with Professor. Einar Henning Smebye. She studied for a year at the Sibelius Academy 2012–2013 in Helsinki, Finland.

Miki is a member of Japan–Norway Musicians' Society, The Grieg Society of Japan and The Sibelius Society of Japan.

From 2017, Miki started the project of Books/Literature & Piano works "Honmonotone" in Japan and European countries. She has been performed at several libraries and book shops. She has been working as music magazine editor and music score editor at publish company in 10 years since she graduated music academy.

Charity concert for earthquake in northern Japan at Oslo public library, Oslo

Presentation about Scandinavian culture at the Japanese radio channel FM802 "Sweden House SWEDISH STYLE

Yamate Seiyoukan Book Festival: "Scandinavian book Piano Concert", Yokohama

<Honmonotone project>

Library concert by Minamisoma central library "Travel around the world of literature with piano music", Fukushima

Library café Zenzen presents "Special book party: wonderful world of Riku Onda", Ibaraki

Picture book museum Hibikikan "Gift from Picture book and Piano", Kyoto

Arkadia international book shop "Chamber Music Concert with Japanese Literature" series, Helsinki

Bookcafe Under the mat: "Spring Concert: Picture book and Piano music from Scandinavian countries", Tokyo

Kunitachi Art Biennale 2018: Play Me, Im Yours Kunitachi 2018

"Piano Concert in the forest of picture book", Tokyo

Bergen Public library: "Miki spiller Murakami og Ishiguro, Bergen