

A Japanese calligraphy artist and Ikebana, flower arrangement, master who spending time in European cities to share Japanese calligraphy and Ikebana.

Organize a workshop to nurture the richness of mind where participants present their feelings by writing a single Kanji word on a piece of paper with calligraphy brush, inspired by Zen's "Ichigo-Ichie" (one encounter per lifetime and also interpret as "a meeting own special Kanji word"). Teach foreign students Ikebana, flower arrangement, follow Zen's spirit to collect themselves.

Achievements:

1. The Royal Society of British Artist
2. The member of International Peace Art Association
3. The Agency for Cultural Affairs' Kyoto relocation commemorative project event Artist