1991- start to take part in International Sculpture Symposium in Georgia, Turkey, Greece, and Vietnam.

1997- opened the studio in Obihiro, Hokkaido and moved there.

Involved as an art coordinator in urban development, store design, NPO activities, and teaching at JHS.

2006- have been an artist-in-residence in Finland, The Netherlands, and The United Kingdom, where I have produced workshops and exhibited on the site.

In recent years, focusing on workshops and collaborative work by my own project, and have been deepening my own sculpture expression while working with children and adults who are a little bit difficult to work with in the local community.

Public art works in Hokkaido: Kitanoyatai, and Obihiro University of Agriculture and Veterinary Medicine.

If you have plan to come to Obihiro, please contact me anytime.

Let's enjoy art together!
