Ryu Oyama

Artist, Pharmacist.

1976 birth in Yamaguchi, Japan. After graduating in pharmaceutical chemistry and fine art in Japan, he studied and worked in a field of contemporary art in Germany. Moved to Okinawa in 2017, he has been developing unique art projects in Taiwan, South Korea, Finland, Indonesia and other parts of the world, based on the knowledge cultivated in science. His research and artistic practice explore topics such as food, land, human-nature relations, archaeology, and anthropology, through the site specific fieldwork. He has participated in various cross-disciplinary art-and-science projects worldwide, including projects and collaborates with artists and researchers.
